

Cyfafod Cyngor Eglwys 20 Gorffennaf/July 2014 PCC Meeting

A meeting of the PCC was held on Sunday 20 July 2014 with Ven. Alun Evans in the chair. The meeting commenced with prayers led by Jean Voyle Williams. The Vicar welcomed everyone to his "very last PCC".

Matters Discussed:

- 1 Planning permission for new Vicarage has been approved.
- 2 Tower: no correspondence had been received from Steven Knott.
- 3 Exhibition and Communal Area: Mr Gethin James of Llanarthne had drawn up plans free of charge. The PCC are very grateful for this act of kindness.
- 4 The Churchyard Records have proved to be a tremendous asset as we have been able to help Jane Aaron of Leicester to find her grandfather's grave.
- 5 Vicars Matters: The Vicar began his report with this sentence – "On 31 August I will be gone". He thanked the members of the parish for their support and encouragement. He thanked Jean for her support at all times and her service to the parish. Evelyn would also like to express her thanks to everyone during their ministry but especially during her illness. The Vicar wished the parish every blessing. Jean responded on behalf of the PCC. She expressed our gratitude for the Vicar's faithfulness and dedication. We had all enjoyed the "special" services he had prepared for us. She thanked the Vicar for his loyalty to the School, and everyone will always remember the Easter and Pentecost Experiences. She thanked him also for his work in the whole parish and especially his chairmanship of the Cytun Committee. Lastly she paid tribute to Evelyn who had been a tremendous support and there was a welcome at the Vicarage, especially the breakfast on Easter morning, the Wine and Cheese on Ascension Thursday and the Strawberry Teas in the summer. The Vicar's last service will be on Sunday 27 July at 10 followed by refreshments in the hall.

The meeting ended with grace.
