Annwyl Gyfeillion

Yn ystod yr ychydig flynyddoedd diwethaf mae ein bywydau i gyd wedi newid. Mae'r pandemig wedi cael effaith enfawr ar bob un ohonom, ac mae'r blynyddoedd i ddod yn arbennig o ansicr gyda'r rhyfel yn yr Wcrain. Nid ydym yn gwybod beth fydd canlyniadau ac ôl-ffeithiau'r rhyfel hwn am weddill y degawd.

Mae'n anodd teimlo'n obeithiol am y dyfodol, ac eto mae yna bwyntiau golau sy'n disgleirio'n llachar. Un pwynt o olau sy'n disgleirio'n llachar yw Amelia Anisovych – merch fach saith oed o'r Wcrain a ganodd "Let It Go" mewn lloches bom. Ac yn ddiweddar fe syfrdanodd gynulleidfaoedd mewn cystadleuaeth corau Cymreig yn Aberystwyth wrth iddi ganu'r gân honno yn ogystal ag anthem genedlaethol yr Wcráin. Mae Amelia wir yn ysbrydoliaeth i ni i gyd. Mae angen eiliadau o ysbrydoliaeth ar bob un ohonom sy'n rhoi hwb inni, ac sy'n ein galluogi i weld bywyd o safbwynt uwch na'n hanghenion materol a'n cysuron yn unig.

Mae Iesu'n ein hannog i 'ymdrechu'n gyntaf am deyrnas Dduw a'i gyfiawnder, a bydd eich holl anghenion materol yn cael eu rhoi i chi hefyd.' Mae gweithredu hyn allan yn dipyn o naid ffydd. Sut allwn ni wybod y bydd ein hanghenion materol yn cael eu diwallu, os byddwn yn ymdrechu'n gyntaf am y daioni uchaf (summum bonum)? Wel, ni allwn wybod, oni bai inni fynd allan a cheisio'r daioni uchaf i'n bywyd, oni bai ein bod yn wir yn byw i Dduw, ffynnon pob daioni. Mae hyn yn anodd ei wneud, ond pa nod arall ddylai fod gennym? Yn sicr, ni ddylem anelu at yr hyn sy'n llai na'r daioni uchaf.

Mae cael nod mewn bywyd yn rhoi ystyr i ni. Ni ddylem grwydro trwy fywyd heb nod ac felly heb ystyr. Ac felly beth am anelu'n uchel. Beth am fod yn barod i wneud yr hyn sy'n anodd ac yn heriol, a thrwy hynny roi ystyr gwirioneddol arbennig i'n bywyd.

Mae Iesu'n ein herio ni i ymdrechu'n gyntaf am deyrnas Dduw. Mae'n ein herio i wneud y peth anoddaf ac uchaf y gallwn ei ddychmygu, i ymdrechu am ragoriaeth. Os gwnawn ni hyn, bydd ein bywyd yn gweithio allan yn well na phe gwnawn unrhyw beth arall. Os ymdrechwn yn gyntaf am deyrnas Dduw, bydd yr holl bethau sydd eu hangen arnom i fyw a ffynnu o ddydd i ddydd yn cael eu rhoi inni. Dyma'r egwyddor y mae Iesu yn ei rhoi ger ein bron. Mae'n anodd gweithredu'r egwyddor hon. Mae'n gofyn am naid ffydd. Ond bydded inni gael y gras i gymryd y naid hon o ffydd a gweld beth fydd yn digwydd.

Dear Friends

During the last few years all our lives have changed. The pandemic has had a huge impact on all of us, and the years ahead are especially uncertain with the war in Ukraine. We do not know what the consequences and repercussions of this war will be for the rest of the decade.

It is difficult to feel optimistic about the future, and yet there are points of light that shine brightly. One point of light that shines brightly is Amelia Anisovych - a seven-year-old Ukrainian girl who sang "Let It Go" in a bomb shelter. And recently she wowed audiences at a Welsh choir competition in Aberystwyth as she sang that song as well as the Ukraine national anthem. Amelia is truly an inspiration to us all. We all need moments of inspiration that give us a lift, and that enable us to see life from a higher perspective than simply our material needs and comforts.

Jesus exhorts us to 'strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all your material needs will be given to you as well.' To act this out is quite a leap of faith. How can we know that our material needs will be met, if we strive first for the highest good (summum bonum)? Well, we can't know, unless we go out and seek the highest good for our life, unless we truly live for God, the wellspring of all goodness. This is hard to do, but what other aim should we have? Surely, we should not aim at what is less than the highest good.

Having an aim in life gives us meaning. We should not wander through life without an aim and therefore without meaning. And so why not aim high. Why not be willing to do what's difficult and challenging, and so supercharge our life with meaning.

Jesus challenges us to strive first for the kingdom of God. He challenges us to do the most difficult and highest thing we can imagine, to strive for excellence. If we do this, our life will work out better than if we do anything else. If we strive first for the kingdom of God, all the things we need to survive and thrive daily will be given to us. This is the principle that Jesus is putting before us. It is hard to live out this principle. It requires a leap of faith. But may we have the grace to take this leap of faith and see what will happen.

Every Blessing in Christ

Canon Dewi Roberts

Editorial

Thank you all for your contributions to this edition of Tafod Twrog. The pandemic has changed so much over the past two years and life continues to change for many of us with the sad passing of Auriol Howells. In July, Meinir Jones will step down as headmistress of Llanddarog School, which as most will know is a Church in Wales voluntary controlled school, one of twenty-five in the Diocese of St Davids, for children aged 4 to 11. Meinir has worked with St Twrog Church to maintain close communication, as you will see from Vilna's article.

A vigil was held outside the church for the people of the Ukraine. While a substantial amount was raised by Church members, we all felt it important that we pray for all those involved.

Kate Jones has written an article about her daughter's work as a Japanese interpreter. Please take time, if you can, to look on the web for the BAFTA piece – it is amazing.

I was really impressed with the poem about "Passover" by Professor Bleddyn Jones, a cousin of Jean Voyle Williams. I have never had the skill to produce poetry, but I know that several of our members have that gift.

I would be grateful if you could let me have your articles for the next edition to cover August, September and October, by Monday 17th July.

Selwyn Evans

Selwyn was born in 1938 in Erw Wen, Llangunnor but his parents Annie Mary and Gwili moved to Coedhirion soon after he was born. He attended Llanddarog Church in Wales School and he then went on to attend Queen Elizabeth Grammer School for boys but at the age of 15 left school to work on the family dairy farm. Their British Fresian Cattle herd and the Hirion herd were well known in the area and some of the pedigree stock won many accolades in the show ring and won at the Royal Welsh on numerous occasions. We also know of Selwyn's vast contribution to the Royal Welsh Show and to agriculture as a whole over the years.

Selwyn was so excited to join the Llanddarog Young Farmers Club and he represented the club in different competitions at County and Country level. He held numerous offices at Llanddarog Club during the years – Chairman, Secretary, Leader and eventually President. He also became County Chairman and later County President and the Chairman of Wales Young Farmers' Clubs. He was an excellent Public Speaker, a skill that he again gained by being a YFC member.

He was appointed County YFC Organiser for the Carmarthenshire Federation, a post he held for seven and a half years. He was proud of all the achievements of the YFC and he was one of those responsible for relocating the Wales YFC Headquarters to Llanelwedd.

It was through his connection with the YFC that he met Daphne and they were married in 1982 at Pembridge Church. Daphne and Selwyn would have been celebrating their Ruby wedding anniversary this coming September. They were blessed by the birth of Tomos and together as a family at Coedhirion they diversified and established a very successful Touring Campsite and he opened up the farm to people all over the world. His Texel sheep flock was regarded as top class not only in Wales but beyond. Not only was Selwyn a man who cared for his sheep, he also knew Jesus the Shepherd.

Selwyn played a major role in the life of this locality – Founder member of Llanddarog Show, being President Designate for 2022, chairman and member of the Hall committee for many years, a member of the Community Council for over thirty years having served as chairman on three occasions. He was the one who suggested we have a Community Award. He was responsible for arranging the visit to our village by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales when Llanddarog won the All Wales Village of the Year Award in 2003.

He was a staunch church person and served St Twrog, which was his spiritual home, as Church warden for many years.

Selwyn was also a former member of Rotary and had received the Paul Harries Fellow. He was a current member of Carmarthen Probus.

Selwyn was a character. Isn't it so sad that characters are disappearing from our societies as everyone today wants to be the same. He was a caring person, family orientated, and his home Coedhirion was his castle. Diolch am ei fywyd llawn ac am gael cydgerdded rhan o'r daith yn ei gwmni. Coffa da amdano a bydded iddo orffwys mewn hedd a chyfodi mewn gogoniant.

I gofio am Auriol Howells: 1926 - 2022

On Tuesday, March 29th family and friends gathered to say a fond farewell and to give thanks for the life of Auriol Howells who would have celebrated her 96th birthday on April 2nd. She had been marking the milestones during the year, being 95 and a quarter, 95 and a half, 95 and three quarters and 95 and 11 months, but it wasn't to be.

Rwy'n ei chyfrif yn fraith i gael ysgrifennu ychydig eiriau er cof amdani, fel yn wir yr oedd yn fraith i gael adnabod rhywun mor arbennig ag Auriol.

Yn wraig, mam, mam yng nghyfraith, aunt and great aunt, ffrind agos i nifer, brenhines Llanddarog, Mrs H, Auriol. Mae gennym ni gyd ein hatgofion personol o'n perthynas gydag Auriol ond rwy'n siŵr ein bod ni gyd yn cytuno ar hyn.

Roedd yn hael ymhob ffordd. Hael gyda'i gofal o'i theulu. Hael gyda'i chefnogaeth i'w ffrindiau a'i chymuned. Hael gyda'u harian i achosion da. Hael gyda'i gwen a'i hiwmor drygionus.

She was generous in every way. Generous with her care towards her family. Generous with her support to her friends and community. Generous with her money for good causes. Generous with her smile and mischievous humour. Generous with her wine..... Huw's wine!!

There have been many jokes over the years about the mother in law's relationship with her son in law. Auriol and Huw's relationship was anything but a joke. They lived and worked together at Cysgod y Llan for decades and as Jean herself says – Huw oedd y ffefryn.

Roedd yn angerddol am ei theulu, ond roedd 'na bobl, anifeiliaid, llefydd ac ambell dîm rygbi oedd yn bwysig iawn iddi hefyd. Rhaid son am Oksana a Rostya o Belarws. Ymwelwyr cyson yng Nghysgod y Llan ers y flwyddyn 2000 a ffrindiau mynwesol i Auriol a Jean a Huw. Rwy'n gwybod bod Oksana yn meddwl am Jean a Huw yn gyson, fel i ninnau'n meddwl ac yn gweddïo amdani hi a'r teulu yn Belarws yn ystod y cyfnod gofidus yma yn hanes Ewrop.

All animals lucky enough to call Cysgod y Llan their home were cared for like VIPs by Auriol. Each and every one was part of the family.

Cefneithin was the centre of the universe. You can take the girl out of Cefneithin, but you can't take Cefneithin out of the girl. The caravan at Summer Hill was for many years a haven for Auriol and Ken and latterly for Auriol and Anne Parry, the two ladies who were infamous on site and in Saundersfoot and who always had a taxi available at any time.

I have to mention the Scarlets, the best rugby team in Wales, and Auriol is wearing her scarlets scarf with pride.

Ond cartref ysbrydol Auriol oedd Eglwys Sant Twrog. Yn byw yng Nghysgod y Llan, roedd y gloch o hyd yn canu'n uchel ac yn glir yn ei bywyd. Rwy'n siŵr mae un o achlysuron mwyaf balch Auriol os nad yr un gyda mwyaf o falchder oedd gweld Jean yn cael ei hordeinio llynedd. Rydym ni gyd yn browd o Jean, ond Auriol oedd y balchaf.

Auriol was a one off who meant so much to so many. She fought ill health for decades with an ethos of let's get on with it and live life to the full.

Roedd hi'n dalp bach o aur Cymru. Mae aur Cymru yn brin, ac yn yr un modd mae pobl fel Auriol hefyd yn brin.

Nawr mae'n seren ddisglair yn y nen. Rwy'n siŵr bod 'na barti mawr yn y nefoedd gydag Auriol a Ken yn joio a synnen ni nad Anne a Glan Parry sydd tu ôl i'r bar.

Diolch Jean a Huw am eich gofal ohoni a coffa da am ffrind, cymeriad a 'lejud'.

Diolch/Thanks

Angela Knott (1940 – 2021.)

I would like to thank my friends, neighbours and members of St Twrog Llanddarog for their concern and kindness shown during Angela's illness and on her death. Your support helped to sustain me during that difficult period.

My grateful thanks to Canon Dewi and Rev Jean for arranging and conducting the funeral which was an uplifting experience at Angela's request. Also Wendy the organist, the pallbearers and all who helped with the funeral arrangements.

My gratitude also to many others who helped in many different ways.

Due to the generosity of everyone I was able to present a cheque of £540 to Dementia UK in memory of Angela.

Thank you very much. Diolch yn fawr.

Keith Knott.

Mam

Er na fedri di weld ei gwên
Na chlywed swm ei throed,
Mae'th fam yn cyd-gerdded
bob cam o'r daith,
Yn union fel y gwnaeth hi
erioed.
Mae'n dilyn dy hynt a'th helynt,
Yn deall pan ti'n brudd.
Mae'n lapio ei breichiau
amdanat;
Sychu'r deigr yn ar dy rudd.
Efallai nad yw hi'n bosib
Ei gweld gyda'th lygad dy hun,
Ond mae hi yna, yn y
distawrwydd:
Ym mhob atgo', ym mhob un
llun.
Fe deimli di ei chariad
A'i llais- yn dy galon di.
A lle bynnag y byddi o ddydd i ddydd,
Bydd ei henaid gyda thi.

Mother

Although you can't see her smile
Nor hear the sound of her feet,
Your mother co-walks every step of the journey,
Just as she always did.
She follows your progress and trouble,
Understands when you are sad.
She wraps her arms around you;
Wipes the tear on your cheek.
It may not be possible
To see it with your own eye,
But she is there, in the silence:
In every memory, in every single picture.
You feel her love
And her voice - in your heart.
And wherever you are from day to day,
Her soul will be with you.

Irene Connor, Addasiad Elin Angharad

Diolch i bawb am ei caredigrwydd yn ystod ein profedigaeth ddiweddar o golli mam a mam yng nghyfraith annwyl iawn. Roedd pob carden, ymweliad a sgwrs ar y teleffon yn help mawr i ni yn ein colled ac yn ein hiraeth.

We wish to thank everyone for their kindness during our recent bereavement. All the cards, visits and telephone conversations were a source of great comfort to us in our sad loss.

Jean and Huw Voyle Williams

Mrs. Meinir Jones

Blin iawn oedd derbyn y newyddion bod Mrs. Meinir Jones Pennaeth Ysgol yr Eglwys Llanddarog yn ymddeol yn yr haf ar ol 31 o flynyddoedd o wasanaeth, wedi dechrau a gorffen ei gyrfa yn Ysgol Llanddarog. Tipyn o gamp.

Mewn cyfarfod yn yr Eglwys talwyd teyrnged uchel i Mrs Jones am ei hymroddiad i sicrhau Ethos Gristnogol Eglwysig gadarn yn yr ysgol.

Mae croeso wedi bod dros y blynyddoedd i'n Ficer gynnal y Gwasanaeth bob bore Mawrth. Yn y blynyddoedd diweddera bu Jean, Vilna a Myfanwy yn cynorthwyo gyda'r gwasanaethau boreol. Ar hyn o bryd mae'r Ficer a Jean yn mynd am yn ail.

Mae'n braf hefyd i weld symbolau eglwysig a christnogol o amgylch yr ysgol. Un o uchafbwyntiau y flwyddyn yw Pererindod Blwyddyn 6 i Dyddewi ac mae'n braf deall y bydd hyn yn digwydd eleni. Yn yr Arolwg diwethaf a wnaed gan yr Eglwys yng Nghymru cafodd yr ysgol ei chlodfori am yr ethos Gristnogol arbennig yn yr ysgol.

Mae Mrs Jones hefyd wedi sicrhau cysylltiad cryf rhwng yr ysgol a'r Eglwys. Mae'n braf cael croesawu y plant i'r eglwys bob amser yn enwedig Gwasanaeth Ymadael blwyddyn 6 pan gyflwynir copi o'r Testament Newydd i'r disgyblion.

Buom yn cydweithio gyda'r ysgol i gyflwyno "Profiadau'r Pasg a'r Pentecost" ac edrychwn ymlaen eleni eto i gyflwyno 'Profiadau'r Pentecost' ym mis Mai.

Bu aelodau'r Eglwys yn cynhorthwyo ac ariannu i greu yr Ardd Weddi. Yn achlysurol defnyddir yr eglwys fel ystafell ddosbarth.

Mae Mrs Jones wedi rhoi ei bywyd i'r ysgol ac mae'n amser nawr i wneud a mwynhau y pethau eraill sy'n bwysig yn ei bywyd. Diolch yn fawr iawn i chi am eich ymroddiad i'r ysgol dros y blynyddoedd. Gobeithio y byddwch yn dal i ddod i'n gweld yn St Twrog. Pob dymuniad da am ymddeoliad hir a hapus.

NEWYDDION YSGOL LLANDDAROG

Tymor y Gwanwyn

Roedd hi mor braf fedru dathlu dydd Gŵyl Dewi fel ysgol gyfan eleni ac er mwyn nodi'r achlysur gorymdeithiodd y disgyblion yn eu gwisgoedd Cymreig gyda'u hathrawon drwy'r pentref ar fore Mawrth y Cyntaf. Diolch i aelodau'r eglwys a'r gymuned am eu cefnogaeth tu allan i'r eglwys wrth i'r plant ganu caneuon i ddathlu'r ŵyl. Yn ystod y prynhawn, gan ei fod hefyd yn ddydd Mawrth Ynyd, cafodd pob dosbarth yn ei dro y cyfle i fwynhau blasu crempog gyda Mrs Jones yn y Cyfnod Sylfaen.

Llongyfarchiadau i'n timoedd Cwis Llyfrau, Gwyn, Llew, Betsan ac Edwy o ddosbarth Pantyffynnon ac Angharad, Ella, Lili Haf a Megan o ddosbarth Penrhiw, am lwyddo yn rownd gyntaf y gystadleuaeth. Maent nawr yn brysur yn paratoi hysbyseb llyfr i'w gyflwyno ar gyfer yr ail rownd. Pob dymuniad da iddynt.

Cafodd dosbarthiadau Penrhiw a Pantyffynnon gyfle i fynd ar eu hymweliadau cyntaf ers cyfyngiadau COVID y tymor hwn – y ddau ddosbarth yn ymweld â Chanolfan y Celtiaid, Castell Henllys lle buont yn cymryd rhan mewn gweithgareddau ymarferol i ddysgu am ffordd o fyw y Celtiaid yn ystod yr Oes Haearn. Roedd y gweithgareddau hyn yn cynnwys sut i adeiladu tŷ crwn, gwehyddu, gwneud bara a dysgu am wahanol arteffactau'r cyfnod. Diwrnod arbennig i'r ddau ddosbarth heb os. Roedd cyffro yn nosbarth Pantllan hefyd ar ddechrau mis Mawrth wrth iddynt weld, trwy ddulliau digidol, dau oen bach yn cael eu geni ar fferm Caeffynnon. Maent wedi penderfynu galw'r ŵyn yn Dewi a Mr Price – rwy'n siwr y byddwn yn dilyn hanes yr ŵyn yn ystod y tymor nesaf.

Wrth i gyfyngiadau Covid ostwng, rydym yn ffodus iawn y tymor hwn i gael arweiniad y Ficer a'r Parchg. Jean Voyle Williams yng ngwasanaethau wythnosol y dosbarthiadau. Mae'r disgyblion yn edrych ymlaen at eu hymweliadau. Gobeithio nawr yn ystod tymor yr Haf y bydd yr ysgol yn gallu cwrdd i addoli gyda'i gilydd yn nghantîn yr ysgol unwaith eto.

Ar ddiwedd tymor y Gwanwyn, ffarwelwyd ag un o'n cynorthwywyr dosbarth, Miss Heledd James a dymunwn y gorau iddi yn ei swydd newydd.

Ar drothwy tymor ola'r flwyddyn gobeithiwn yn wir y byddwn yn gallu dychwelyd i ddathlu fel ysgol a chymuned a chynnal y digwyddiadau arferol sy'n cynnwys mabolgampau'r ysgol, y Ffair Haf a gwasanaethau ymadael disgyblion Blwyddyn 6. Byddwn hefyd eleni yn ffarwelio â Mrs Jones, y pennaeth, wedi ei phenderfyniad i ymddeol ar ddiwedd y flwyddyn ysgol. Byddwn yn ôl yn Mabell Plant Sioe Llanddarog ar Fehefin 25ain gyda gweithgareddau yng nghornel y plant ac arddangosfa o waith celf disgyblion yr ysgol. Felly cofiwch alw heibio.

Newyddion Clwb Iau News

Clwb Iau met in March in Church where we did some crafts together. We decorated gift boxes and made some beautiful felt pictures and prepared for Mothering Sunday. We enjoyed some lovely cupcakes made by Sian, Betsan & Tomos and we all had a chat about Lent. Thank you Catherine for helping prepare the prayers for the children for the Mothering Sunday Service, where Einir took part by singing and playing Ukuele with Tannau Twrog during the service.

On Good Friday, Hawys, Einir and Hunydd took part in the Stations of the Cross walk around the church in Llanarthney. They took part in readings and helped carry the cross. All who attended received a very warm welcome from members of the church and everyone enjoyed the Hot Cross Buns and a juice drink back in the church afterwards.

We hope to meet again now before the summer for the annual sports and BBQ. To finish off the year, there will be a family service in Church at 9.30am on June 26th. Then we plan to have a meeting before the new term in September to prepare activities for the autumn and invite new families to come along to join in and enjoy our beautiful church and community. Thank you to everyone who helps and contributes to the running of Clwb Iau throughout the year. We are really blessed to have such a wonderful group of families, and we are all very proud of the children.

Ym Mis Mawrth, fe gwrrddodd Clwb Iau yn yr Eglwys i gael gwneud crefftiau gyda'n gilydd. Fe addurnwyd bocsys rhodd, ac fe wnaethpwyd lluniau ffelt hyfryd ar gyfer Sul y Mamau. Mwynhawyd gacennau gan Sian, Betsan a Tomos ac fe gawsom sgwrs am y garawys. Diolch i Catherine am ei help wrth baratoi y gweddiau ar gyfer y plant yng ngwasanaeth Sul y Mamau.

Ar ddydd Gwener y Groglith fe aeth Hawys, Einir a Hunydd draw i'r eglwys yn Llanarthne i helpu gario'r groes ac i wneud darlleniadau, a chymryd rhan yng Ngorsafodded y Groes. Cafwyd groeso cynnes gan bawb oedd yno, ac fe fwynhawyd diod a 'hot cross bun' yn yr Eglwys wedi'r gwasanaeth.

I orffen y flwyddyn, fe fydd gwasanaeth deuluol yn yr Eglwys am 09.30yb, Mehefin 26ain. Y gobaith yw, y byddwn yn cwrdd eto cyn yr Haf, pan fyddwn yn cynnal ein Mabolgampau a Barbeciw blynyddol, ac yna cyfarfod cyn y tymor Newydd Mis Medi i baratoi gweithgareddau ar gyfer yr Hydref, a gwahodd teuluoedd Newydd i ymuno a mwynhau ein cymuned ac Eglwys brydferth. Diolch i bawb sy'n cyfrannu ac yn helpu'r Clwb Iau drwy gydol y flwyddyn. Mae'n fendith i gael grwp hyfryd o deuluoedd, ac i ni gyd mor browd o'r plant.

Nos Sul Ebrill 3ydd 2022

Sunday April 3rd 2022

Gweddi. The meeting commenced with prayers led by Canon Dewi Roberts.

Materion a drafodwyd / Matters Discussed:

1. Materion yn codi / Matters Arising

a) Church Tower: An update had been received from the solicitor, Edward Friend.

2. Adroddiad Ariannol / Financial Report 2021.

The report was presented by Robert Jones.

Robert thanked the church officials for their assistance during the year. Despite the church being closed on occasions there was an increase in contributions and donations. The members were thanked for their contributions. All churches had seen a reduction in their Parish Share this year but will return to normal next year. An update was given on the various accounts, investments etc. Robert thanked our auditor Ruth Lewis and it was decided to retain her services.

The Vicar thanked Robert for the care and dedication shown throughout the year.

The report was adopted.

3. Adroddiad y Ficer / Vicar's Report: Canon Dewi Roberts

2021 had been a special year in the life of our parish as the Rev. Jean Voyle Williams was priested in St. David's Cathedral. Jean was thanked for her tremendous work in our parish and in the LMA.

Church attendance had been very encouraging and the two harvest services, the Easter and Christmas services had been well attended.

During the year weekly services with the school had been conducted via Zoom but despite restrictions the children had been able to visit the church.

He wished to thank all who contribute so much to the life of our Church, the officials, the officers and the post holders.

The two fundraising events held in 2021 namely the Congo Project and the sponsored walk in aid of Teenage Cancer had raised large amounts of money. We have also contributed to Carmarthen County Council Toy Appeal and the Carmarthen Food Bank.

Debbie and he would like to thank the parish for their continued support and kindness.

4. Apwyntiadau / Elections and Appointments

a) Officials

The churchwardens, secretary, treasurer and health and safety officer were all re-elected. Daphne Evans expressed her wish to retire as Safeguarding Officer. Her decision was reluctantly accepted and the Vicar thanked Daphne for her work over a long period of time. This matter to be discussed at the next church committee meeting.

b) Subcommittee re-elected.

c) Church Committee

Eirwen Davies and Marilyn Jones had resigned from the committee due to ill health. Both were thanked for years of service and faithfulness to the church and wished well for the future. Daphne Evans was appointed a member of the church committee.

5. UFA / AOB

a) Improvements

Schedule of works and costings had been received from Carl Morgan which were accepted.

All necessary documents to be submitted to the LMA.

b) Church cleaner. The honorarium of the church cleaner was discussed and raised.

c) An asbestos survey to be completed.

d) Organists. Fees of church organists discussed and raised.

e) Fault in the organ to be discussed in the next church committee meeting.

6. Cyfarfod / C.C meeting

Next meeting of church committee Sunday May 15th at 5 o'clock.

As there was no further business the meeting ended with Grace.

Vilna Thomas (Secretary)

Passover

He washed their feet then broke their bread,
And gave them blood-red wine,
His Body and New Covenant
The tender lamb so fine.

Gethsemane in cool of night,
The agony ahead,
Betrayal came, He did not blame,
By soldiers He was led.

The trials were conducted through,
And nightly vigils kept,
The Roman washed his hands of Him,
The crowd scene so inept.

Barabbas was released instead,
And Christ then faced the Cross,
The nails through flesh to wood did split,
On Calvary such loss.

The women wept and wailed nearby,
The men were desolate,
Three Mary`s and his own dear John,
Gazed up and watched His fate.

His parting words of tenderness,
With words from Holy Psalms,
So different now from days before,
When greeted by those palms.

The storm then struck and day was night,
The Temple Veil was torn,
He taken down and laid to rest,
But soon to be reborn.

Undeb y Mamau ~ Mothers' Union

Representatives from the five Branches in our Group met in the Ivy Bush on 7th February to review past events and to plan for the future. Work on the Diocesan Banner is progressing and hopefully will be ready for the Diocesan Commissioning service on 25th April at Abergwili Church.

Canon Dewi was our speaker in the February meeting, talking about his "Idaho Sabbatical". We were shown some slides which portrayed the wonderful scenery he experienced and he also shared with us some of the historical characteristics of the area. He stayed with his brother and sister in law Dr Ceredig and Hannah Roberts in Boise, Idaho and during his stay there in 2016 he had some time to reflect on the fairy-tale "The Princess and the Goblin" by George MacDonald. In 2021 he produced a book called Reflections on a Victorian Fairy-tale which is a very interesting and thought-provoking book to study. Well worth a read and would be an excellent resource for church groups, with questions and pointers for discussion.

Members met in church for the Wave of Prayer. Our slot was noon on 25th February, just one Branch of the hundreds taking part, at set times, as it spreads across the world.

March was a celebration of our Patron Saint David, when members and friends enjoyed Cawl a Chân in church. The Cawl and Welsh cakes were followed by a piano recital from John James and the singing of familiar Welsh songs. Jean thanked those responsible for the food and John for the entertainment.

On Monday 28th March six Branches met for a Quiet Afternoon in St Peter's. It was led by Rev. Matt Webster, with readings by Wendy and Eiryth. Seven of our members attended. Members of St. Peter's Branch had provided a generous variety of cakes, tea and coffee, providing time for fellowship.

As in previous years, it was intended that the Cleaning of shoes would take place on Maundy Thursday, but with the increase in the number of Covid cases it was decided to cancel it. Could anyone wishing to make a donation to Tir Ddewi please give it to Margaret Rees, MU Treasurer before 6 May.

Dates for your Diary Please note slight changes from the printed programme.

Tuesday 10th May. Installation of Canon Dewi as Chancellor at the Cathedral

Thursday 12th May A Mystery Evening! - Noson Ddirgel!

Thursday 9th June 2pm Lorna Cecil and her dog.

Saturday 25th June Diocesan Gathering in Bronwydd
10am for 10.30am

Thursday 14th July Mystery Trip. Taith Ddirgel

Meetings held at 7pm in church on 2nd Thursday in the month, unless otherwise stated. New members always welcome. Enquiries to Jean Voyle Williams, 01267 275222.

Poems for the Ukraine

The poems for Ukraine below were read during the vigil held outside St Twrog Church recently. They so clearly reflected our thoughts on that day and since the start of the conflict, we thought readers might wish to have these for their reflection.

Wrth weled llunie ar y sgrîn
Mae ngalon i yn gwaedu,
Mae meddwl am greulondeb dyn
Yn gwneud i'm calon dorri.

Y mae ein 'Covid' ninne nawr
Gobeithio dan reolaeth,
Ond mae 'na ofid mwyach, oes,
I'r byd a'i holl ddynoliaeth

Gweld mam a'i phlentyn bach yn foi
Gweld dagrau, gweld gofidiau,
Hiraethu wnant am ŵr a thad,
A safodd dros eu hawliau.

Pa beth yw 'dyn' i tithe Putin?
Pa beth yw gwerth y dynnol ryw"
A wyt ti'n deall yr egwyddor
Bod gan pob un yr hawl i fyw?

Gweddiwn dros y bobl,
Gweddiwn dros Ukrain,
Gweddiwn nawr am heddwch
Gweddiwn dros y rhain.

Resistance

It's war again: a family carries its family out of a pranged house under a burning thatch.

The next scene smacks
of archive newsreel: platforms and trains
(never, again, never again),

Toddlers passed
Over heads and shoulders, lifetimes stowed
In luggage racks.

It's war again: unmistakable smoke
On the near horizon mistaken
For thick fog. Fingers crossed.

An old blue tractor
Tows an armoured tank
Into no-man's land.

It's the ceasefire hour: godspeed the columns of winter coats and fur-lined hoods,
the high-wire walk

Over buckled bridges
managing cases and bags,
balancing west and east – godspeed.

It's war again: the woman in black gives sunflower seeds to the soldier, insists his marrow will nourish

the national flower. In dreams let bullets be birds, let cluster bombs burst into flocks.

False news is news
with the pity
edited out. It's war again:

an air-raid siren can't fully mute
the cathedral bells –
let's call that hope.

Easter Day Sunrise Service

22 of us attended the Easter Day Sunrise Service this year – after two years of not being allowed to meet for this special service it was especially significant. The sun rose as we were ending the service, as you can see from this photo, after which we enjoyed breakfast and fellowship in church. Thank you to all those involved in the preparation of the church for this special day.

An Evening at the BAFTA Film Awards

“Exciting last minute job this weekend” was the WhatsApp message we received early one Saturday afternoon from Bethan, our eldest daughter. We knew that nowadays she was unlikely to be jetting off anywhere at short notice, but other possibilities came to mind. As a Japanese interpreter she has done some weird and wonderful things in the past. Was she off to a palace, a sporting fixture or an art installation, or perhaps Al Jazeera wanted her to trawl through a news feed? All of these she has done at some time. I didn’t think she’d describe tax or legal matters as exciting. “I’m going to the BAFTAs with director Ryusuke Hamaguchi (R.H.)” she continued, “He’s up for three awards, and if he wins any of them you’ll get to see me interpreting for him on BBC1.”

Less than an hour later she was on her way to meet him at a reception for nominees, where she later described an interesting conversation between her chap, and someone from the film CODA, which involved her translating from Japanese into English for the sign language interpreter to communicate with his chap, a difficult process in a noisy, crowded room. Later that evening she declined an invitation to dinner, having ascertained that R.H. had enough English to survive the meal, and went home to finish her preparations for the job she already had booked on Sunday morning, the location of which she’d had to move in order to get to the Albert Hall on time. She had to be there by 3pm in order to get the wristbands and lanyards needed for the evening to proceed smoothly. The issuer seemed to take a while to grasp that Bethan needed to be with her charge anywhere he might possibly go, including stage, red carpet, and press conference, and after a few changes she was suitably equipped to ‘Access all Areas’. Unfortunately, that didn’t get her a seat in the Hall. I think that possibly R.H. had been so wrapped up in the Japanese version of the Oscars in the preceding few days, that he had made a late decision to come to London, and no-one had wanted to book a very expensive seat for an interpreter just in case he came. Even the stage-side seats where she had been told to park herself were full. Eventually Bethan was told to sit in any empty seat but be prepared to move if the ticket holder claimed the seat. All was well until the clips of the films in the ‘Not in the English language’ category were being shown, when the gold lamé clad ticket holder appeared, along with a steward to ensure the interloper was moved. Bethan’s protestations that one way or another she would be moving as soon as the clips stopped fell on deaf ears, so she moved to sit on the steps in the aisle. No, that was definitely not allowed, but fortunately some ladies nearby moved along to make room for her. Then she was off to the stage, and a couple of hours later she told us where we could find the footage to watch. To say we were impressed and proud doesn't really do justice to how we felt.

During the backstage press conference, another of the categories for which R.H. had been nominated was being decided, so they had to nip back to front of house, and again for the third category. This meant that they were a little late finishing with the press, and still had to get to the Park Lane hotel where the celebratory dinner was being held. It took a while to find a taxi, and as they walked R.H. had his Bafta on display for all to see, until Bethan suggested he might like to conceal it under her spare jacket. At last in a taxi, he fell asleep, jetlag finally outweighing excitement.

At the hotel, Bethan's Access All Areas pass gained her entry, but the same problem arose in that no-one had booked her a place at the table. After trying unsuccessfully to find somewhere to eat nearby, she decided to forgo the opportunity of hanging around for the partying to start and headed home.

We weren't the only ones to be impressed with her performance as there were many complimentary comments online, someone even going so far as to suggest she should host next year's event as she had better comic timing than this year's compere. Only afterwards did we realise that she was possibly the only person who appeared that evening totally anonymously. The agencies supplying the Sign Language interpreters were credited so they were presumably expected to be in attendance, but anyone wanting to contact Bethan would have to do some research to find her.

And the job she worked round on Sunday morning? An online event explaining how computer technology is used to grow the perfect strawberry. Only £6 a strawberry if anyone fancies a treat.

If anyone is interested in watching our Bethan at work, go to the BBC iPlayer, search for 'BAFTA Film Awards 2022' and scroll forward to 53 minutes. Enjoy!

The Wednesday Craft Group meets on the 2nd, 4th & 5th Wednesdays from 2 - 4pm. For more details contact: Elizabeth phone 01269 832569 or email heolddufarm@outlook.com.

Gardening Club

The gardening club is still in its early days and is doing well. We now have red and clear bags for litter picking. As we are in different villages we are litter picking in our own areas. We have grown flowers and vegetables from seed which we will share with everyone when big enough for transplanting. A garden party is in the early stages of planning to raise funds for plants as well as other projects in the future. For more information please contact Jenny on 01269 871496 or Elizabeth on 01269 832569.

Llanddarog Show

Following the cancellation of both 2020 and 2021 Shows due to the Coronavirus Pandemic, Llanddarog Show Committee is delighted to be preparing for this year's Show, which will take place on Saturday 25th June. Work is well underway in preparing the schedule, organising the children's section, finding judges, obtaining sponsorship, and arranging the day's attractions and amenities, during what is a very busy and challenging year for many businesses.

The health and safety of the community remains the priority of the Committee, and we will continue to follow Government guidance to deliver a safe and enjoyable day for all.

This year's show schedule will be available online. For further information please contact Claire Williams on Secretary@sioellanddarogshow.co.uk or on 07854 838524.

Merched y Wawr

Roedd lefel Covid yn uchel yn mis Ionawr ac yn anffodus bu rhaid gohirio'r cyfarfod er mwyn diogelwch pawb.

Mis Chwefror croesawyd pawb i'r cyfarfod ar ddiwrnod stormus.

Croesawyd ein siaradwraig wâdd, Non Vaughan Williams i'n plith gan ein llywydd Margaret Davies. Mae yn paratoi traethawd doethuriaeth ar gyfraniad merched yn nyddiau cynnar darlledu a dyna oedd ei thestun i ni, "Merched sydd wedi gwneud gwahaniaeth" gan grynhoi rhai o'r merched ddaeth yn flaenllaw ym myd darlledu Cymru, gan gynnwys Nan Davies, Myfanwy Howell, Lorraine Davies, Ruth Price, Teleri Bevan ac Evelyn Williams.

Treuliodd Non oriau yn pori drwy archifau'r BBC yn Caversham ac Archif BBC Cymru yn Caerdydd yn ogystal â phapurau yn y Llyfrgell Genedlaethol, Aberystwyth i gasglu gwybodaeth. Cawsom hanes difyr a diddorol a rhoddodd olwg ar faes a ddominyddwyd gan ddynton tan yn gymharol ddiweddar.

Ar y diwedd gweinyddwyd paned o dê gan Joy a Iona ac ennillydd y raffl a roddwyd gan Eirwen oedd Mari Seymour.

Mis Mawrth, dathlwyd Gwyl Ddewi yng nghwmni'r Parchedig Jean Voyle Williams a llywyddwyd y cyfarfod gan Gwenda Evans. Wedi mwynhau cawl blasus, cafwyd anerchiad difyr ac amserol gan Jean wrth iddi amlinellu'r pethau a roddodd liw, llun a maeth i'w bywyd. Fel yr oedd cynhwysion da yn cyfoethogi'r cawl, felly y gwelai fod teulu a magwrfa, crefydd, addysg a pharodrwydd i wneud gwaith gwirfoddol wedi cyfoethogi ei bywyd hithau.

Cafwyd te a chacen, tynnwyd y raffl a roddwyd gan Iona a Meganwy a'r ennillwyr lwcus oedd Carol a Beryl.

Ebrill 11eg cafwyd cyfarfod Rhanbarth Caerfyrddin yn Neuadd Llanddarog ac yn "Noson Cystadlaethau Radi Thomas" Llongyfarchiadau i Gina Miles am ennill Paentio "Yr Ardd" a bydd ei gwaith yn mynd ymlaen i gystadlu yn Sioe Llanelwedd.

Llongyfarchiadau i Margaret Davies ar ddathlu pen-blwydd arbennig a diolch am yr holl waith mae yn ei wneud i'r Gangen.

Yn mis Ebrill edrychwn ymlaen pan fydd Mirain Alaw Jones yn ein hannerch, wyres Megan Williams.
